The MOVING FORWARD AWARD is presented by the California Public Employers Labor Relations Association (CALPELRA) to individuals (or organizations) who have demonstrated innovative leadership in California public sector labor relations. This award recognizes individuals who, through their professional achievements, have directly impacted their organization by improving labor relations, resolving disputes, or addressing new challenges, or who have helped others grow in the field of public sector labor and employee relations. Recipients of this award are models and mentors to others in their field.

ELIGIBILITY

CALPELRA may present up to three awards each year to individuals or organizations as follows:

- The award may be given to one or more individuals or to an organization.
- Individual award recipients, or for groups, at least one member, must be a current CALPELRA member.
- The award recipient may not be a current member of the CALPELRA Board.

CRITERIA

- The nominee(s) should have demonstrated a commitment and leadership in the field of California public sector labor relations.
- Emphasis should be on a specific accomplishment or a series of accomplishments achieved over the past 12 to 24 months; however, earlier accomplishments that continue to have a positive impact may also be recognized. These accomplishments should be directly related to the field of public sector labor/employee relations. Examples may include innovative contract language or programs, unique approaches to addressing new or old problems, or enhanced labor-management relations.
- Relevant supporting documentation must be included with the nomination materials.

NOMINATION AND SELECTION PROCESS

- Nominations should be submitted on the attached Nomination Form by the deadline noted below.
- The MOVING FORWARD AWARD will be presented at the Annual Conference in Monterey in November 2019.
- Please direct questions concerning the nominations process and send your nomination form to Susan Cassell, phone: 925.400.6322, e-mail address: susan.cassell@calpelra.org
